Matthew Alexander 'Honorary Remembrancer' of Guildford -

The Battle of Guildford Gap - This battle was never fought, although in the summer of 1940 both the Germans and the British thought that it might be. A defensive line of pillboxes and road blocks was constructed to resist an invader, with the Tillingbourne at Chilworth acting as an anti-tank ditch. In the event, it was never put to the test.'

Cllr Richard Billington – The Mayor of Guildford – 'a week in the life of a Mayor'.
